

- 1. What is a Reciprocal Cabin Seat Travel Agreement?
It is an arrangement allowing AirTran Airways and Other Airline Flight Attendants to travel in what would be empty cabin seats.
- 2. How do I sign up for a seat on a flight?
Eligible travelers may see a gate or ticket agent at any one of our stations to list in person on the day of departure.
- 3. Who is eligible to travel under the Reciprocal Cabin Seat Agreement?
Only active Flight Attendants are qualified to travel under this Agreement.
- 4. Can an Other Airline Flight Attendant sit on cabin jumpseat?
At AirTran Airways, we do not allow Other Airline Flight Attendants to occupy our cabin jumpseats in the event no cabin seats are available.
- 5. Can I utilize the Cabin Seat Travel Agreement while on leave?
No, you must be an active, qualified flight attendant to travel.
- 6. What is my boarding priority when traveling on the Cabin Seat Travel Agreement?
Cabin seat travelers are boarded on a first-come, first-served basis after all other revenue passengers have boarded and non-revenue pass travelers have been cleared.
- 7. Do I have to wear my badge when traveling under this Agreement?
No. You would have to have your valid company ID with a "CREW" designator in order to travel but you would not display it once onboard.
- 8. Is there a dress code when utilizing the Reciprocal Cabin Seat Agreement?
Yes, business casual attire is required when utilizing the Agreement, keeping in mind that if you are accommodated on a cabin jumpseat, you may not have open toed shoes, sandals, sneakers, or denim while sitting there. Full uniform compliance will also be allowed for travel.

9. What are the procedures an Other Airline Airways Flight Attendant should follow to travel utilizing the Cabin Seat Travel Agreement?

Flight Attendants should check-in with the AirTran gate agent no sooner than one hour prior and no later than 30 minutes prior to scheduled departure.

Present proper airline I.D. that clearly indicates the individual as "CREW" and must include an expiration date.

Compliance with approved carry-on baggage program applies.

After all revenue customers are processed, standby processing begins. Please wait for gate agent to call your name and issue a boarding pass to board the aircraft. Conduct while onboard must reflect a professional business-like attitude in accordance with all standard passenger regulations (seat belts, carry-on bags, safety information signs, etc.)

10. May I consume alcoholic beverages when utilizing the Cabin Seat Travel Agreement?

No.

11. Are there blackout dates that apply to the Cabin Seat Travel Agreement?

No. However, AirTran reserves the right to impose an embargo prohibiting travel on certain dates or routings at any time.

12. Does this Cabin Seat Travel Agreement cover all flights system wide?

Yes, all AirTran flights system wide, with the exception of charter flights.

13. Are "lap" children eligible to travel under this Agreement?

No, infants, or "lap" children may not be accommodated under this Agreement.

14. Are cabin pets allowed to travel under this Agreement?

No, cabin pets cannot travel under this Agreement.